

the bluebird of happiness

* What does the bluebird symbolize? A quick Google search says that it is "frequently regarded as a message of happiness and optimism" and "is a sign of spiritual development, hope, and joy... rebirth, tranquility, and good fortune...."

Let's make a bluebird for our art tables!

1. Print this sheet out on card stock.
2. Color the fronts and backs.
3. Cut out the two shapes below and fold and staple on the dotted lines.

4. Now, add detailing with paint or paint markers... eyes, beaks, feathers, etc.
5. Keep it nearby all year long. Happy New Year 2025!
